SK FEDERAL ACTION TO MAINTAIN FARM PRICES.

Agricultural Conference Demands Congress Take Steps to Secure Fair Exchange Values.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Immediate steps to re-establish the value of farm products on a parity with those of other commodities was asked of Congress and President Harding tonight by the National Agricultural Conference through the unanimous adoption of a resolution. The resolution was contained in a report from the marketing committee and members said its adoption meant "something must be done by the President and Congress immediately."

The resolution follows:

"It is the sense of this committee that the Congress and the President should take such steps as will immediately re-establish a fair exchange value for all farm products with that of all other commodities."

AGAINST MINIMUM PRICE.

The conference rejected a resolution of the National Farmers' Union, offered by J. S. Wannamaker, of South Carolina, which would have called for a government minimum price guarantee on farm products.

Some measure of stabilization of prices was advocated by J. M. Anderson of St. Paul, Minn., who said some such step should be taken in Europe is restored economically. He favored participation of the United States in European adjustments, but said:

"We don't want to embarrass the President by asking more entanglements in foreign affairs."

E. M. Page of North Dakota asked for a minimum guarantee on wheat for two years.

ASK INVESTIGATION.

The conference previously had adopted a resolution which read: "With respect to the question of governmental price guarantees, we feel there should be a comprehensive study of this subject, therefore, we urge that the Congress cause a careful investigation of this whole problem to be made by some proper authority which will report its findings as early as practicable."

Co-operation of farm marketing was also recommended and endorsed.

Other recommendations of the marketing committee approved by the conference called for:

Clarification by Congress of the rights of farmers of organized co-operative associations for the buying of supplies and marketing of their products; orderly marketing of crops through co-operative associations of farmers, preferably on a commodity basis; adequate Federal and State information services; adequate warehousing, terminal facilities and storage plants for farm products, including temporary storage facilities in producing districts; a Federal cold-storage law; practical means of making stored products more generally available as a basis for loans; standard grading of commodities; studies of marketing costs and business methods.

DISCUSSED IN SENATE.

The report of the committee on a national land policy urging creation of a land commission to draw up a policy for classification and reclamation of land went over until tomorrow.

The conference today also entered discussion in the Senate and at the hearing of the Senate Agriculture Committee on the Ladd price stabilization bill.

Senator Hoffman, Alabama, in the Senate, expressed hope that the conference would result in some good and criticized the selection of its delegates. The whole administration, he declared, from the President down, "is losing an opportunity to rap the Congressional bloc, which was unanimously endorsed by the conference."

At the Senate agriculture hearing, J. S. Wannamaker, of South Carolina, a delegate, declared agriculture could be saved from bankruptcy only through governmental fixing of prices for cotton, corn and wheat. He agreed with Senator Page, Republican, Vermont, that fixed minimum prices could not be maintained without embargoes barring imports of these commodities and he estimated it would cost the government not more than $500,000,000 in purchasing farm commodities to stabilize prices.

OPPOSE PRICE FIXING.

In a conference with newspapermen, Secretary Wallace expressed opposition to price fixing, which, he said, would prove ruinous to the farming industry. He declared he favored plans to restore the purchasing power of the farmer's dollar to a parity with that in other industries.

The conference today took up committee recommendations and resolutions immediately after hearing addresses by R. A. Pearson, president of the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts; Dr. E. D. Ball, director of scientific work of the Department of Agriculture; Richard E. Ely, professor of economics of the University of Wisconsin, and Clifford Pinchot.

The resolution offered by the committee on agriculture and price relations, which included the endorsement of the agricultural bloc in Congress, and coupled with this commendation of President Harding and Secretary Wallace for their action in making possible the calling of the conference, was adopted unanimously.

GIRL TRIES TO END HER LIFE.

Didn't Want to Stay a Drudge Like Mother in Exile.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NUTLEY (N. J.) Jan. 26.

A strange case of adolescent psychology came to light here today with the admission by Mary McNally, 14 years old, in St. Mary's Hospital, Passaic, that she attempted to end her life with gas on Tuesday. Mary is a star sophomore pupil in the Nutley High School and her nickname was "Merry Sunshine." She said she sought oblivion because she had been "nothing but a drudge, as mother was."

While the Japanese have made no formal expression, it is understood they are disposed to accept the deferred payment plan, the latest compromise project in place of the loan on which they have insisted heretofore. China, on her part, is said to be ready to agree also to deferred payments, although the term for which her treasury notes are to run is another question.

The date suggested for return of the road is five years hence, when the French state delegation, which the Chinese would fall due, while the Chinese proposals previously have said the date three years away and have provided that the first payments also would be made at that time.

In American quarters these points of difference are regarded as so unimportant that failure of a settlement is impossible.

M. Barraud, the leader of the French state delegation, was taken ill today with a slight attack of bronchitis. He is confined in his room but his friends expect that he will be able to resume his duties within a day or two.

Extension of the provision of the Webb-Pomeroy Act, which provides for combination of censuses for export trade.

WANT FEDERAL CENSUS.

The report on crop and marketing statistics, which was adopted, urged collection and dissemination by the Department of Agriculture of complete reports on everything of interest to producers. A Federal census of live-stock every five years, State surveys each year and a biennial census of manufacturing.

Adequate safeguarding of health, free circulating libraries and increased school facilities were recommended in the report of the committee on farm population and the home, which also was adopted.

Other recommendations of this committee included study of rural problems, co-operative marketing, appointment of farm women on farm organizations and other Federal and State bodies; encouragement of farm home ownership and an increase in the number of public extension workers.

system of guarantees and penalties.

Saying that the Allied demand that Germany should adopt means to balance her budget coincided with Germany's own interests, Dr. Wirth said: "Once the new financial proposals have been voted our republic will amount to about 100,000,000 gold marks against 85,000,000,000 gold marks in 1921."

He then explained that the compromise finally had been reached by an agreement between the different parties.

The Chancellor concluded by alluding to Premier Lloyd George's words concerning the need for restoration of confidence between nations.

"I consider these words," said the Chancellor, "as a great profession of political faith. The spirit of the war should be buried with the hatchet of war, which signifies a policy of force, of violence and of threats. It cannot bring to the nations the wished for peace."

The taxation proposals of Dr. Wirth will increase the property tax by 200 per cent.

URGES MORATORIUM.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—A ten-year moratorium for Germany was advocated by William Westermann, president of the Rotterdamse Bankvereniging of Rotterdam, in an address today.

Declaring Germany could not make the reparation payments demanded and that normal conditions could not be restored until the political and financial questions involved in the exchange situation were settled, he asked:

"Why not postpone the settlement ten years? Let everybody breathe freely again and give his whole attention to production. Let the government take measures to make both ends meet. Then gradually the exchange will become settled."

AGREEMENT ON SHANTUNG MADE

the Atlantic. Completion of this treaty, dividing the Pacific lines between the United States, Japan and The Netherlands, is expected within a few days.

As viewed by some delegates the cable treaty is virtually the only agreement of the conference that is not in some degree affected by the log-jam of shifting in the center. Should an agreement over the former German leased territory fail, it is conceded generally that the effect would be far-reaching on the whole Far Eastern situation, and through that medium, in turn, on the naval agreements and the four-power Pacific treaty.

FAILURE IS IMPOSSIBLE.

Just how narrow has become the difference remaining between the Japanese and Chinese over Shantung is not revealed by all outward signs tonight indicated that the only one or two points of the railroad tangle remained to be settled.

While the Japanese have made no formal expression, it is understood they are disposed to accept the deferred payment plan, the latest compromise project in place of the loan on which they have insisted heretofore. JAP'S VISIT TO WOOD DELAYED BY ILLNESS
Tokio, Jan. 26.—(Associated Press.)—Tanaka, a member of the cabinet, who announced Monday his purpose to go to the Philippines to return the visit to Japan of Gov. Gen. Wood, has postponed his trip, owing to the illness of his wife, Mrs. Tanaka, who is recovering from an illness.

continued. "I am afraid that when the proposed commission functions the people will not know what is going on, and when they do learn it, it will be too late for the settlements will already have been made."

Referring to the suggestion that foreign bonds be sold in the United States, Mr. Johnson declared to know whether those who favored such a proposal were willing to link up the United States with Europe after it had been thoroughly demonstrated that the American people did not want the League of Nations.

FRANCE HIS EXAMPLE.
"Bring those bonds over here," the Senator queried. "Look at France! Russian bonds in the hands of every peasant. And what are they worth? And how have they interested France in the Russian wreck?"

"Why, those who favor this bill are not dealing with the purse-strings of the nation. I say we are working at the very vitals of the country's finances. I know men who are almost financially ruined because they tried to do all that was demanded of them in the purchase of Liberty bonds."

"We took that money from our people in the stress of war-time, turned it over to our associates in the struggle and now it is proposed to use it for something in payment which would result in linking us inseparably with every foreign controversy."

WHOLESALE ATTACKS.
The Allied debt-refunding bill was subjected again today to attack from both Republicans and Democrats in the Senate, and was defended by majority party leaders. When the Senate adjourned the end of the debate was not in sight, but those in charge of the measure thought a final vote might be reached tomorrow.

In the first vote on an amendment late today an amendment was approved providing that the refunding bonds should not bear interest at less than 4 per cent. The amendment was suggested as a substitute for the original Finance Committee bill, which would have provided that the rate of interest should be not less than that provided for by existing law.

WATSON OPPOSES.
Opposing the Johnson amendment, Senator Watson, Republican of Indiana, declared a vote of the Senate to accept it would be tantamounting less than "a vote of a lack of confidence in the President."

Senator Borah, Republican of Idaho, took issue with the Finance Committee bill, declaring Congress had caused the creation of a debt and that it was responsible to the people for what happened to it.

Senator Glass of Virginia, a former Secretary of the Treasury, and Senator Simmons of North Carolina, both Democrats, contended that the Secretary had full authority to refund the debt without interest. Chairman McCumber of the Finance Committee, disputed this contention.

Closing the day's discussion, Senator Heflin, Democrat of Alabama, wanted to know what Wall Street interest was behind the proposition that the government put off to some far-distant time the collection of the interest.

LATE PONTIFF LAID TO REST.

shoulders of the red-coated ushers and the solemn procession moved with measured steps, headed by a giant figure of a soldier, the gendarmes, with drawn sword. Behind him were his stalwart gendarmes, six deep. An escort of Palestine guards followed, then the Swiss guards. The priests of the basilica took up a position behind them, and after them came another group of Swiss guards bearing uplifted swords and halberds.

Immediately behind the body came the major, accompanied by Sacristan Zampini, and following them were Prince Ruspoli, grand master of the apostolic household, the Marquis Sacchetti, major-forger, the Marquis Francesco, and Col. Dischbuhl, commander of the Swiss guards, preceding a corps of the Noble Guards.

WEAR QUAIN COSTUMES.
Next came the major prelates in robes of black and purple, then members of the Ancient Order of the Sword and Cape, in quaint medieval costumes, with ruffled collars, garters and buckled spurs, then the high officers of the armed forces of the Vatican in the order of their precedence.

Meanwhile the members of the sacred college, bishops, archbishops and diplomats had entered the chapel of the choir, with its high steeple rising along both sides of the altar. As they entered they took up their positions according to their rank. The strains of the "Miserere" were heard as the procession approached the chapel and the Cardinal Archbishop Merry del Val, and the Cardinal Camerlengo Gasparri, took their places near the casket which was to receive the body.

As the strains of the "Miserere" ended the Pontiff's body was carried in and the anthem "Exultate Dominum" was again sung, followed by the chanting of "In Paradisum."

ABSOLUTION GIVEN.
Then the solemn ceremony of absolution took place and the choir sang the anthem "In Paradisum," followed by "Sicut Cervus." While the last anthem was being sung the body was deposited in the cypress coffin and the major dome of the Vatican, Monsignor Sans de Samper, covered the face of the Pope with a veil of white silk, and placed in the coffin the medals struck during the pontificate of Benedict, and purses of coins in accordance with custom.

Cardinal Cagellaro, Archbishop of Frascati, and the first Cardinal created by Benedict, covered the

OPPOSE FOREST TRANSFER.
American Association at Anniversary Meel Urges Service Be Kept With Agricultural Department.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The American Forestry Association, at its annual meeting today, which also was in the nature of an observance of its fortieth anniversary, adopted a resolution opposing transfer of the Forest Service from the Department of Agriculture to the Department of Interior.

"It would simply mean two sets of services," Col. Henry S. Graves, former chief of the service, said. "For the growing of forest crops and the management of the forest, such a move would mean duplication of effort and loss of efficiency."

Other resolutions urged Congress to adopt a national forest policy law to provide fire prevention methods; increase research work and provide additional national forests and forest lands.

The association, in celebrating its anniversary, called on the country to mark another date also: the centennial of the first Arbor Day in the United States, April 10, 1872.

The opening address was made by Charles Lathrop Pack, of Lakewood, N. J., the president.

body with a large red veil fringed with black, and placed at the feet a brass cylinder upon which was inscribed a succinct history of the life and pontificate of the late Pontiff.

Finally absolution was given, the coffin was sealed by the Cardinal Camerlengo and the Archpriest, with ribbons of violet silk, and the cover was screwed down. The burial act was then read and formal transfer of the body made by the Sacred College to the Chapter of the basilica, this being duly registered.

COFFIN IS SEALED.
The coffin was thereupon sealed with the apostolic palace seal, then those of the basilican chapter, the Archpriest and Camerlengo.

The cypress coffin, in which the body rested, was placed in a lead casket, the ends of which were immediately soldered and both were deposited in a hardwood casket, upon which the same seals were affixed as on the first.

The casket was surrounded by a wooden cross, also by the Pope's coat of arms, with tiara and the brief Latin inscription, "The body of Benedict the Fifteenth, supreme pontiff, who lived sixty-seven years, occupied the throne of St. Peter seven years, and died Jan. 22, 1922."

BODY PLACED IN TOMB.
After the ceremony in the chapel of the choir, the procession reformed and proceeded to a position before the high Pontifical altar immediately under the apocryphal dome. The cardinals followed in the procession to took

Government at Manila Spent American Cash

(BY CABLE-RECEIVED DISPATCH.)
MANILA, Jan. 26.—That the Philippine government has spent $10,000,000 belonging to the United States War Department, and is unable to repay that sum, was revealed today in a message from Gov. Gen. Wood to the Legislature. To meet this and other emergencies, Gov. Wood urges an increase in the debt limit from the present $20,000,000 to $75,000,000. "The War Department funds, it is understood, were used largely for payment of salaries of employees of the Philippine government who otherwise would have gone unpaid at various times during the last year."

BOILER MAKER IN HARD LUCK.

Boys Soft-Drink Parlor: In Two Days Is Finished for Selling Liquor.

(SEE A. P. STORY PAGE)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—Penas Asello, a boiler maker, retired today from the soft-drink business. On trial in the Federal Court yesterday for selling liquor, he said he paid $250 for the good will of a soft-drink parlor, only to learn an hour afterward that it had been raided six times in two weeks. For two days, Asello said, he sold illicit liquor, and then fell into the prohibition dragnet himself. He was fined $250.

thence it flows through a portion of the republic of Mexico to the gulf.

TRIBUTARIES EXPLAINED.

"It has a number of tributaries which rise in various parts of the basin which flow into the main stream. The largest of the tributaries in the Green River, which rises in the Wind River Mountains in Wyoming and flows southward into the Colorado River, in what was formerly the junction of the Green and Grand rivers. This tributary furnishes a greater amount of water than any other. Some of the tributaries are flashy in character and at times carry great floods, notably the Gila.

"The Colorado River is subject to annual floods, sometimes of great volume, principally in the late spring months. At this time it carries a large percentage of solid matter in suspension, which is deposited as silt, by which means it has built up its delta cone completely across the upper portion of the Gulf of California, forming a dam many miles in width. The water in the upper portion of the Gulf having evaporated has left the basin now called the Imperial Valley, which has at its lowest portion the Salton River, 150 feet or more below sea level. On this delta cone the river bed is now thirty or more feet above sea level, and above a large portion of the surrounding country, particularly the Imperial Valley. The bed of the stream is building higher each year, thus becoming a serious menace, which has made necessary the building of protective dikes and levees.

"In addition to the foregoing the Colorado River Commission recognizes the following facts:

"That the Colorado River is an inland interstate river, and

"That it forms a portion of the boundary between the United States and the republic of Mexico.

INTERNATIONAL RIGHTS.
"That the international rights and agreements between the United States and the Republic of Mexico, as set forth in the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, proclaimed July 4, 1848, and as recited and added to in the Boundary Commission Report of 1906, and by any and all other treaties, agreements and compacts between the United States and the Republic of Mexico, with respect to the Colorado River, are binding upon this commission.

"That the status of the river in that respect shall be regarded as having been fixed and settled;

"That the Colorado River has been declared to be a navigable stream, though many Army engineers who have been directed to examine and report on the navigability of the river and the advisability of improving the same for navigation have so recommended against any improvement because of the unworthy character of the stream, its navigation and lack of necessity for its use as such at the time. The construction of the Laguna Dam, under authority of the government, has impaired the navigability of the river.

"The commission recognizes that there is urgent need for every possible development in the Lower Colorado River (1) for flood control, (2) for the increasing demand for irrigation water (3) the creation of hydroelectric power to meet the demand of the general growth of industry in the Southwest.

"The commission recognizes a future demand for more extensive utilization of the waters of the Colorado and its tributaries throughout the entire basin, or watershed of the Colorado River, for irrigation, power development and other uses.

"Therefore, being fully advised, the commission makes, agrees to and promulgates the following principles and policies with respect to the use of the waters of the Colorado River and its tributaries:

RIGHTS SET ASIDE.
(1) That the common law doctrine of riparian rights does not obtain, and shall not be recognized in the Colorado River basin.

(2) That no citizen or any of the citizens thereof, shall obtain nor shall any development on States, with respect to some use of the waters of Colorado River as against any other State, or the citizens thereof; that all priorities as between said States, with respect to some use of the waters of Colorado River are hereby specifically waived. Provided, however, it is understood and agreed that any person, firm, company, corporation, municipality or State having the financial ability and readiness and willingness to construct such dam for the uses and purposes suggested, under proper regulations and agreements conserving to the public the inalienable rights to the use and benefits to be derived from the utilization of the waters of the Colorado River, be granted a permit or license for such development.

(3) That in the event the government of the United States or any State or municipal corporation should construct, own and control such dam or dams referred to in recommendations 1 and 2 above, and should such development work or improvement be not subject to taxation, then it is recommended that the State in which such development work is located be allocated the cost of such State a block of electric power at the switchboard commensurate in amount and in lieu of the tax that would be assessed against such development work if done and owned by private capital.

(4) We recommend that when the Colorado River is controlled then the government of the United States immediately proceed to improve the navigability of the river by dredging a channel in the thread of the stream from some justifiable point below Boulder Canyon to the Gulf of California, to make the said river navigable.

No startling changes in the City League basketball standings are expected to result from today's list of games. Pasadena will undoubtedly dispose of L. A. High without serious opposition, while the two teams meet in Pasadena, and Lincoln is due to face thorough wallowing at the hands of Hollywood's quintet. Whether Jefferson succeeds in stopping Paly's athletes, or whether the Mechanics come to life and trim the Democrats, makes little difference at the present stage of affairs, both teams being on the bottom of the list.

Manual and Long Beach are still smoldering over a disagreement that occurred a few years ago, and will not meet on the basketball court this season. This is unfortunate, as a game between these two top-notch casaba aggregations would be a nice exhibition.

NO DIFFERENCE. Neither team is forfeiting so the fact that they will not play will not affect their standing. The game was merely dropped from both schedules, the other members of the City League agreeing to this action. There is considerable speculation as to what would be done in case Manual and Long Beach tied for the title.

Manual Arts, Hollywood and Long Beach are declared for the leadership of the lightweight division. The Jackrabbit youngsters have a rapid machine, and are able to take the honors.

COFFEY BOXES DUNDEE.

McDonald Will Meet McManus in Semi-Wind-up at Hollywood Tonight.

BY GERALD FIDGLE.

When announcer Dan Tobey calls Joe Coffey and Jimmy Dundee to the center of the Hollywood ring tonight to do battle in the wind-up of the evening's program, an old score will be settled. These crafty 130-pound muth pushers have been bitter rivals for many moons and yet they stand even on the record books. Coffey wound up an intensive training last night and declares that he will enter the ring tonight in splendid form. Dundee, too, has been working hard to get in shape for his big event, and with both lads in tip-top condition, a real scrap can be looked for.

Alex McDonald returned yesterday from the north where he held that good boy, Joe Lynch, to a draw. Alex is one of the most sensational 115-pounders ever uncovered in these parts and should prove an ideal match for Johnny McManus in the semi-wind-up of the American Legion boxing festival. Matchmaker Frank Crowley yesterday declared that the McDonald-McManus affair will give the main event a close rub in point of interest.

Tony Gregory, the clever 125-pound Sacramento lad, will make his debut here tonight, giving his best to Herb Rawlinson. Paul G. Hoffman, Joe Thompson, Willie Carter, Mike Hennessey, and 10, 125 pounds and Mike Mitchell, 10, 125 pounds are the boys he has in tow.

Despite the fact that he amassed 115,000 in the fight game in recent years, Fighting Sam Murray, is reported to be flat broke and confined to his bed in a sanatorium in Phoenix, Ariz., a victim of the white plague.

Ran Brown to borrow it to pay him.

Must close new Wards and give my best to Herb Rawlinson. Paul G. Hoffman, Joe Thompson, Willie Carter, Mike Hennessey, and 10, 125 pounds and Mike Mitchell, 10, 125 pounds are the boys he has in tow.

Garbutt is to do a thing like that and I remembered I owed you a letter from the last time I wrote you because you never wrote me no answer so hear is the answer which I am sending you now you have to answer, which is the last one I sent.

I seem little Jimmy MURPHY on the st. only he was not on the st. but in his quick action, which some wise birds call a coupe because sometimes they get a well chicken to take a ride to the Annandale Club, and it cost me a lot of money to get down to George Cline's establishment and get fitted out to play a little of that game made famous by ALMA WHITTEKER. I lost and the score was 4 to 0. I lost six balls and Jimmy never lost none.

Cliff Rheauman was walking down the st. and he says to me when did I get in town and he said only yesterday, and he says to me did I like to go up for a little game of hand ball and I remembered how he was a good player and said no, because I had to pay a call to Mr. Woolwine and go up to see Bill Treager to see if he would make me a baseball.

Tonight I am going to see a baseball play at Walter Hearn's Mason theater Ophrahous. It is the Bat and I bet it has a lot of folks about Babe Ruth in it. You know Wards I always did like the silent Drama as Edwin Schaller would say and the Bat, this time he is to play liking because a bat is silent and blind too.

Since I seem you last I have been up in North Los Angeles, which is continuing to call me Francisco. Across the bay just beyond Goats Island they had a auto show last week and a lot of the boys from this fair city was among the attenders. The place was all decorated up like the bed-room of the QUEEN of SHEBA an little fire was burning in the ceiling so I bet it was a holiday in Jave and they were cooking up a lot of LONGOON to serve with Murrads and Bull Durham.

On the train I came down on the st. and Harold L. Arnold (no relation to Benedict) and I asked him all about the auto industry here and he told me you was O.K. and a good boy lately. When I came into the station at the S. P. depot there was a reception committee to meet me, and they was all dressed up in red caps and they wanted to carry my suit case and show me to my room.

That shows what a nice crowd of boys you have in this town Wards and it is no wonder all the world wants to come here some day.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A young man who practiced medicine in Pennsylvania became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who finally made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public, and moving to Buffalo, N. Y., put up what he called his Favorite Prescription, and placed it with druggists in every state.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseases peculiar to womanhood. After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weakness of her sex—a woman is quickly restored to health by its use. Thousands of women testify that Favorite Prescription has entirely eradicated their distressing ailments.

More recently that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, called An-uric (for kidneys or backache), has been successfully used by many thousands who write Dr. Pierce of the benefits received—that their backache, rheumatism, and other symptoms of uric acid deposits in joints or muscles are completely conquered by its use. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. of any of his remedies, or write for free medical advice.—[Advertisement.]

WAR HANGINGS UNCONFIRMED.

Doughboy Denies He Saw Men Executed.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The Senate committee investigating charges that American soldiers were hanged without trial in France probably will close its work next week.

After hearing today eighteen witnesses, none of whom testified directly in support of the charges, the committee adjourned until Wednesday, when twelve witnesses will be examined. Should no others be found meanwhile, the hearing will be closed and Chairman Brannan indicated an early report would be made.

The hearing today covered a broad field. Ivy Henderson of Chester, S. C., who served overseas as orderly for Col. R. C. Langdon, declared in a letter that Col. Paul Malone, a brigadier-general in France, had shot and killed a soldier because he could not keep up with his command, and that Col. Langdon, who, he said, was a witness, reported the shooting.

NEVER HAPPENED.
Col. Langdon, who was testifying, asserted that he never heard of an officer shooting a private, and expressed the opinion that Henderson "was not very bright" and that because of his mental condition probably thought the thing was true, but that it did not actually happen.

Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, whose charges as to illegal executions led to the investigation, asked that Henderson be summoned. It is probable that Col. Malone may appear.

DENIAL BY DOUGHBOY.
Andrew Chelune, of Elmhurst, N. Y., recently mentioned by Herbert D. Cadenhead, of Greenville, Miss., as a soldier who could testify as to his charge that ten or twelve men were hanged at Le-Sur-Tille, declared he heard of only two executions there. He insisted if Cadenhead saw that many, the latter kept the fact to himself while in France.

The recent testimony of Robert Harrison of Wilmington, N. C., that Benny F. King of that city had been shot by a firing squad was denied by two witnesses, who stated they saw King, a messenger, fall from a motorcycle in the Meuse-Argonne sector, when struck by shell fragments. Both were positive it was King.

DECLARES CHARGE FALSE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

COLUMBIA (Ga.) Jan. 26.—"Absolutely false," was Col. Paul B. Malone's characterization of the charge of shooting a soldier under his command during a march in France, because the man could not keep up, when informed of the assertion made before the Senate investigating committee, today.

CUBANS SEEK AID IN SUGAR FIGHT.

OFFER CASH TO AMERICAN
BEET AND CANE SUGAR
MEN FOR ASSISTANCE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Growers of beet and cane sugar in the United States have been offered a cash allotment equal to 4-10 of a cent per pound on their total 1921 sales by Cuban cane sugar growers in return for support in the fight of the Cuban sugar interests against imposition of additional duties on sugar imports, according to Alfred Glover, who said today he was authorized to act for the Cuban producers. If the proposal is accepted, he said, certified checks would be sent American growers for their share on receipt here of affidavits as to the amount of last year's sales.

"The total amount received by American beet and cane growers last year," he said, "was $17,357,579. The Cubans offer to allot to American growers, $14,320,394, which is equal to one-quarter of the latter's gross receipts last year."

He explained that the benefit to be derived by the Cuban growers would include the ability to "support her own world-wide market at 3 cents per pound," and would furnish "all our beet and cane growers a domestic market for all their sugar at 6 cents per pound."

BOTULINUS CLAIMS SIXTH IN FAMILY.

POISON CONTAINED IN HOME-PRESERVED GREENS
SERVED AT PARTY.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

BOISE (Idaho) Jan. 26.—Charles W. Tuttle, 60, died early this morning at Cambridge, Idaho, the sixth member of the family to succumb since Sunday, from the effects of botulinus poison. Three members of the family died Wednesday.

Home-preserved greens, prepared by a 14-year-old daughter, who died Tuesday, served at a birthday party, contained the deadly germs, which have practically obliterated the Tuttle family.

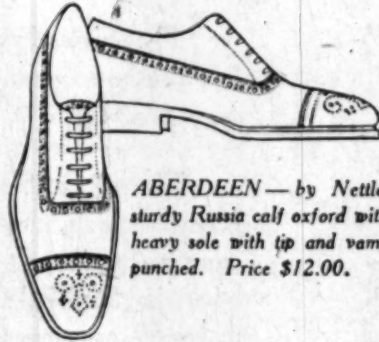

Another son, Russell Tuttle, a member of the party, and Miss Clara, a guest at the party, have developed no symptoms of poisoning yet, physicians declare. Dr. R. Whitman, family physician in charge of the case, said that he would not be able to pronounce Russell and Miss Clara free of the poison before Friday.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR INCOME TAXES.

RELATE TO INSPECTION OF RETURNS; APPROVED BY PRESIDENT.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—New treasury regulations, approved by President Harding and covering the inspection of income tax returns, were promulgated today by Secretary Mellon. The regulations relate to returns of individuals, partnerships, estates, trusts, corporations, associations, joint stock companies and insurance companies.

The new regulations supersede rules promulgated Jan. 7, 1920, by former Secretary Glass.

Under the law all such income tax returns are open to inspection only on order of the President under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. The rules set forth such persons as may be permitted to inspect income tax returns in general, requiring them to be of some formal connection with the matter as in the case of the income tax returns of a corporation which may be inspected by a stockholder of record owning 1 per cent or more of the shares of the outstanding stock of the corporation.

Permission to inspect returns must be obtained from the Internal Revenue Commissioner, except in the case of Treasury Department officials, whose duties require the inspection of returns.

BAPTISTS OPPOSED TO CHURCH UNION.

BUT CONFERENCE ON RECORD
IN FAVOR OF CO-OPERATION WITH OTHERS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

COLUMBIA (Mo.) Jan. 26.—At its final session today the national conference of the northern and southern conventions of the Baptist church, went on record as opposed to any attempt to bring about organic union of the creeds and beliefs of all denominations. The conference, however, favored co-operation with other denominations.

The conference recommended to northern and southern conventions the appointment of a commission to draw up a statement on beliefs of the denominations in the United States.

The conference also recommended to the two conventions the appointment of a joint committee to investigate pending treaties affecting international relations of nations to "discover whether such treaties are friendly to Protestant beliefs as represented by the Baptist denomination."

"Cut Away the Mast!"

In ancient days it was often necessary to sacrifice the mast of a ship in order to prevent a wreck, and, by the maritime law of "general average," every person owning goods carried by the ship was compelled to pay his share of the damage.

"General Average" Still Enforced.

If you ever receive goods shipped by water, they are amenable to the ancient law of "general average" and are responsible for your share of damage done to other's property, "for the good of all."

You won't have to worry about this if you carry marine insurance, which will take care of "general average" along with the many other losses of less incident to ocean commerce.

There is no initial premium and the cost of covering a consignment of goods is very small.

Please write or call for the interesting details.

Wheat Market Prices Wobble; Get Nowhere.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Wheat prices were fluctuating rapidly without getting far in either direction. The average for the day was lower, at the close showing ¼ to ½ cent under the bulk of the previous day. Toward the last evening, however, the price of the local element made a rally. The close was ¼ cent lower on May and ½ cent lower on July and September contracts. The market was unchanged on the rest of the year.

It was not until the close that the price got above the previous day's finish. The market was still under the influence of the preliminary estimates of the crop, which were generally lower than the actual crop. The preliminary estimates of the crop of three Canadian provinces were 250,000,000 bushels, as compared with the preliminary estimates of the crop of the United States, which were 2,000,000,000 bushels. The preliminary estimates of the crop of the United States were 2,000,000,000 bushels, as compared with the preliminary estimates of the crop of the United States, which were 2,000,000,000 bushels.

The market was rather easy with the close at the bottom. Cash buyers were on both sides, representing a great demand for the transaction. The local element did little. For the time it was decided to wait with great caution.

Country offerings were fair. Domestic demand was slow, sales 20,000 bushels. The market was quiet, with no change in the price of the local element. The market was quiet, with no change in the price of the local element.

VEGETABLE SUPPLIES SCARCE AT MARKET.

ARTICHOKE PRICES VARY IN WIDE RANGE BECAUSE OF FROST EFFECTS.

Vegetables continue scarce, not only those which are grown locally, but those from the north as well. Artichokes vary widely in price, selling from $1 to $2 per bushel, depending on the quality. Dealers report that some shipments show signs of frost damage, but the bulk of the crop is in good condition. The market is quiet, with no change in the price of the local element.

LARGE PREMIUM OFFERED FOR CITY'S POWER BONDS

Taxpayers' Loss by Secret Sale
Turned to Two-Million-Dollar Gain; Local Syndicates Busy.

As predicted by Mayor Cryer, City Treasurer Powell and Chairman Muehler of the City Council's Finance Committee, who have all along urged a public sale of the $13,500,000 electric power bonds, two bids from syndicates offering large premiums for the securities were received yesterday by the Council.

It is expected that this morning the highest bid, that of a Los Angeles syndicate headed by the First Securities Company of Los Angeles, which offered a premium of $460,495 for the bonds, will be formally accepted by the Council. The second bid was tendered by R. H. Moulton & Company, offering a premium of $260,550.

On the basis of the city's acceptance of the First Securities Company's bid, the taxpayers will receive $1,983,000 more than they would have by the secret sale of the bonds made to Irving H. Hellman. Under the Hellman secret sale the city would have received $11,965,000.

The California Supreme Court set aside the Hellman sale and the Council advertised for bids which were opened yesterday morning in the Council chamber.

POWELL IS PLEASED. "I consider the bid of the First Securities Company a most advantageous offer," said City Treasurer Powell yesterday after the bids had been opened. "The premium of $460,495 brings the rate of interest down to nearly 4 1/4 per cent. Five per cent bonds were voted by the people so that I am satisfied that the people of Los Angeles will approve of the acceptance of this offer."

Under the Hellman bid the taxpayers would have paid 5 per cent on the $13,500,000, which, in view of the discount, would have been in fact 6 per cent on $11,965,000, the actual proceeds from the Hellman sale.

ACCEPTANCE DELAYED. Immediate action in accepting the bid was delayed by the Council until this morning in order to give time for the city officials to communicate with Attorney John C. Thomson, whose final opinion certifying the validity of the bonds must be delivered to the successful bidder.

After the bonds had been advertised for sale, a suit was filed here in the name of C. B. Minter attacking the validity of the bonds on the ground that the election was threatened so far as is known.

JOHN C. THOMSON. The other bonds referred to are the library and harbor bonds, the validity of which was indirectly attacked by the Minter suit. It is believed that in view of the telegram from Mr. Thomson the City Council will this morning sell the power bonds to the First Securities Company.

As showing the confidence of bond houses that the Minter litigation is not sound, Drake, Riley & Thomas, the successful bidders for the library bonds, are now offering them to the investing public.

MAY WITHDRAW SUIT. There is a possibility that the Minter suit will be withdrawn, according to reports at the City Hall yesterday.

The terms of the First Securities Company bid calls for delivery of the bonds by February 27. Delivery then will give the city $11,965,000 cash to pay to the Southern California Edison Company for the company's distributing lines in Los Angeles before March 1, the remaining $2,500,000 to be used in the construction of new hydro-electric power plants. The $460,495 premium will be added to that fund of the city from which interest charges on the power bonds will be paid.

If the First Securities Company bid is accepted by the Council today, Mayor Cryer will at once begin the tremendous task of signing the 12,500 bonds, so as to clear the way for completing the purchase of the Edison lines on or before March 1.

HAVE SIGNED BONDS. City Clerk Dominguez and City Treasurer Powell have already signed the bonds, and the Mayor expects to complete his task in seven days, after which there remains only the two days' task of affixing the city seal to the 12,500 securities, which are in denominations of $1000 each.

Special Counsel Mathews of the Board of Public Service Commissioners, who was active in putting through the Hellman sale yesterday, advised the Council against accepting the First Securities Company bid, saying that the city, on account of the Minter suit, could not deliver Mr. Thomson's opinion by February 27, and that if the Minter suit remained in the courts it might be a year before the securities would be clear of litigation.

ACTION IS URGED. C. F. Seidel, representing the First Securities Company, urged immediate action in accepting the bid, saying that the city had nothing to lose by accepting it, and everything to gain in case delivery of the bonds and the opinion could be made by February 27. He also said that the syndicate he represented might be willing to extend the delivery time in case the city would not be in a position to deliver the bonds by February 27.

Councilman Mallard also spoke in favor of immediate action, saying that public opinion would force the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, who, the Councilman said, was behind the Minter suit, to withdraw the action because it endangered or delayed the library and harbor projects. "The bid is a fair one," said Mr. Mallard.

BEAUTY JUDGES FACE HUGE TASK

Zone Rivalry Starts to Produce Southland's Fairest Maid.

Miss B. Hynes, Cal. Miss G. Los Angeles

Miss L. Los Angeles Miss L. Los Angeles

Miss J. Los Angeles Miss W. Hollywood

THE Beauty Quest—the search for the most beautiful girl in Southern California and Arizona—undertaken by The Times, has already brought to the manager of the contest a veritable avalanche of photographs, and it is apparent that the board of art critics to which will be assigned the duty of making final selection of prize winners, will have a difficult task.

The residents of each zone have become so familiar with the thorough search which has been launched, that speculation is rife as to which of the six zones, into which the territory has been divided, will eventually capture the capital prize. Each zone is certain to have some winners but there is rapidly developing a good-natured rivalry between zones for the honor of furnishing the first prize winner.

In publishing photos of entrants names and addresses will be omitted, only the last initial and the name of the city or town in which the entrant resides appearing. The names and addresses of the winners will be published when the prizes are awarded.

All that is necessary to become an entrant is to clip the information blank from The Times, fill in the blank according to instructions, paste the blank on the back of the photograph and forward it to the manager of The Times Beauty Quest. When you have done that you then become a possible winner of the first prize, which is $1500, or one of the seventeen other awards aggregating $3400.

THE PRIZES AND ZONES. The Southwest is divided into zones as follows: (1) City of Los Angeles. (2) Los Angeles county outside of the city. (3) The counties of San Diego, Imperial, Orange and Riverside. (4) The counties of Inyo, San Bernardino, Kings and Tulare. (5) The counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Kern and San Luis Obispo. (6) The State of Arizona.

Prizes will be awarded in each zone as follows: First, $500. Second, $100. Third, $50. Then the judges—a board of art critics—will select the most beautiful of the six first-prize winners and she will be awarded

A bit of shattered lead removed from the brain of Paul Kramer yesterday morning by surgeons in the County Hospital, early yesterday evening resulted in the wounded assistant cameraman giving a complete statement to Police Detectives Shy and Simpson. In his statement Kramer declared that his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mattie Hannon, fired the four shots into his head following a quarrel. Mrs. Hannon is held for investigation in the City Jail, where she was placed a short time after the shooting last Monday night.

According to Detectives Shy and Simpson, Kramer yesterday declared the shooting was the direct result of plans made by himself and his wife to move from

EMPLOYERS ASK POLICE PROTECTION

Picketing is Renewed as Judge Lifts Restraint from Garment Workers.

Furthering picketing yesterday by members of the garment workers' union following Judge Crail's order Wednesday dissolving a temporary restraining order issued previously by Presiding Judge Willis resulted in an appeal being made to Assistant Chief of Police Murray during the morning for police protection.

Judge Crail's order, which placed only five members of the union under court restraint, resulted yesterday morning in an increased number of pickets being assigned about the place of business of the employers according to reports made to the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association.

Additional steps were planned to remedy the situation brought about by Judge Crail's order. The plaintiffs announced at the time through their attorney, Isaac Pach, that they will take an appeal. They assert that the order is contrary to many rulings from higher courts including a recent decision on picketing by the United States Supreme Court.

The employers declare they are prepared to meet any contingency brought about by the continued picketing of their plants by union men attempting to unionize the loyal employees.

The trial of the injunction suit by the garment manufacturers against the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union, Local No. 81, was set by Presiding Judge Willis yesterday for March 13 in Judge Wood's department. The injunction is sought to restrain the union from picketing the plaintiff places of business and molesting loyal workers.

STORE'S WOMEN EMPLOYEES
ARREST MAN ON CHARGE OF SHOPLIFTING.

Hundreds of pedestrians, three uniformed traffic officers, two female department-store detectives and a motored officer yesterday afternoon took part in a chase at Seventh street and Broadway that resulted in the arrest of Harold Rowe, 28 years of age, on a charge of shoplifting. Rowe was locked in the City Jail after it is reported, a quantity of stolen merchandise had been found wound about his body.

Rowe, according to the police, was caught in the act of taking a silk dress. He was taken into custody by two women store detectives, but broke away and fled.

Dashing into Broadway Rowe knocked pedestrians right and left in his mad dash for liberty. He was only a few feet in advance of the two women detectives, who shouted, "Stop thief."

A mounted officer rushed down on Rowe just as he was swinging onto a street car.

The People and Their Daily Troubles

Dorothy Dix Talks

Number Two.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

Among my acquaintances is a young woman who married a widower with whom she is very much in love. The man is a model husband, tender, kind, devoted, and he provides his wife with a beautiful home, and all the other comforts of life.

Nevertheless, the woman is bitterly unhappy, and spends much of her time in tears because she imagines that her husband loved her predecessor better than he does her.

"Imagine my sufferings," she wails, "when he speaks of her, as he often does, in my presence. He will even tell me of places they went to together, and of things they saw and did. Every word is like a knife blade in my heart, and I think it will kill me."

Queer, isn't it, how far some people will go to hunt for trouble? This poor woman is letting her morbid fear of a ghost rob her of all the happiness that a lucky fate has bestowed upon her, and she hasn't enough gumption to realize that the wife whose only rival is a dead one ought to be down on her knees thanking heaven for its mercy to her.

It is the women whose husbands' hands are straying off after living pictures, who have got something to worry about, and grow green-eyed over.

Certainly a woman who marries a widower, and then torments her husband with her jealousy of his first wife, does not play the game. She knows what she is doing. She knew that her husband had married her, had tried to be a good husband to her, and had mourned her death when he lost her.

What poor ideals of honor, and loyalty, and a man's duty to his wife, a woman must have if she expects her husband to blot out even the memory of this other woman who gave herself to him, and did her utmost to make him happy. Would the woman who wants her husband to forget his first wife as completely as if she had never lived, like to think that if she, also, should die, in a few months' time he would come to remember her, or their life together? I grow not. Even the women who are so anxious for her husband to be disloyal to the memory of his first wife want to believe that he would be faithful to her memory, and that if she died nobody could ever quite take her place in his heart.

This jealousy of the first wife by the second wife is a very common because every woman yearns to be a man's first love. This is an impossibility to all except the cradle snatchers. If a woman marries a man who is out of his teens, she may be very sure that there have been other women before her, for a man's heart is like a hotel kept on the European plan, that entertains many transient guests before his wife takes a permanent lease upon it.

The difference between marrying a bachelor and a widower is that the bachelor wipes off his slate before he is married, and his wife has no means of knowing who preceded her in his affections, whereas, the wife of the widower has got a line on him. She knows newspapers for contributions. Most often the card is not in evidence, he merely asks you, "Won't you give us some money for the newspaper's dinner?" No attempt is made to sell a paper—no, indeed, he prefers a donation, so that he may put it in his pocket. If you refuse, if you dare to refuse, he makes a grimace at you, no, not only one, but he stands there and distorts his face to show his disapproval. How embarrassing you feel!

Selling newspapers is a very fine training for boys; it makes them ambitious and self-reliant, but the fact that they are not only permitted but encouraged to beg for money, is one of the worst possible things that can be done, in no other city do you see newspaper boys as they do here in Los Angeles. In other cities where newspaper dinners are held contributions are made direct to the newspaper when an announcement is made that the dinners are to be given. Not only permitting and encouraging these boys, but printing these cards for them is a crime against youth.

The cities of Egypt and Arabia are known the world over for the fact that many beggars sit around asking for "Alms, alms"—not of men and women who have reached that age when they are unable to work any longer, but very small children, children as soon as they are able to slip a few words, are taken out on the streets and taught all the tricks of begging. A tourist arriving in Los Angeles is confronted with the same thing, and it is a detriment not only to our fair city, but to the child who is thus encouraged to beg for money ostensibly for the "newspaper's dinner."

Better Day Coming.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am a comparative stranger in Los Angeles, if one who has been in California for a matter of twenty or so years may be said to be a

GASOLINE ALLEY—A LITTLE SERVICE, PLEASE

"stranger." But for almost twenty years, now, I have noticed a tendency on the part of people who write letters to The Times occasionally to take a fling at the wretched street-car service, the antiquated flat-wheel affairs, the car company terms "cars," the overcrowded condition of the cars at certain portions of the day, or twenty minutes will rush by meaning whenever you want to, with the motorman pulling down his "Take Next Car" sign. I have long and patiently looked for some word of commendation of the Los Angeles Street Railway Company and, finding none, I want to speak a word in behalf of this much abused corporation.

I want to announce to the citizens of Los Angeles in particular, and the people of the world in general, that the yellow cars are being bettered, that the company is doing all that an impoverished treasury, soaked and soggy with water, can do. True, we still have the same old antiquated yellow cars; true, also, most of the time the cars are crowded to suffocation; true, too, that the car you've been patiently waiting for fifteen or twenty minutes will rush by meaning whenever you want to, with the motorman pulling down his "Take Next Car" sign. But, dear public, please take care. Remember that a street-car equipment never was made over in a day, even though the world was created in a half dozen. I want to announce that the street car company has started to renew its dilapidated equipment. On a number of the Eleventh-street line of cars the company has provided new straps for the accommodation, the comfort and the equilibrium of its patrons. Voilà!

Q: Who invented the checker? A: The origin of the checker is lost in antiquity. The earliest Greek writers of it as a very old game.

Q: How did Mr. Van name? A: Lawrence Washington, elder brother of George Washington, served in the British army under Admiral Vernon. When he was built his home at Mount Vernon, he called it Mt. Vernon in honor of the admiral.

Q: Who first used anesthesia? A: Anesthesia was first employed by Dr. Oliver Thomas Holmes.

Q: Can camels swim? A: The Biological Survey says that camels can swim. In fact, man is the only animal that has to be taught to swim.

Question: Where and how do the trade-winds originate?

Answer: Trade-winds are dry, the winds blowing constantly in the same course or trade, toward the Equator. In the Northern Hemisphere they blow from the Northeast and in the Southern Hemisphere, from the Southeast. The rotation of the earth and the movement of the air toward the equatorial regions, to supply the vacancy caused by heating, rarefaction and the consequent ascent of the air there, give rise to the trade-winds.

You've hankered for the taste of Maple—here it is!

The flavor that first the Indians knew, and gave to the settlers in New England. It's the flavor of—
LOG CABIN Syrup

It was Moqua, squaw of Woksis, who, the Indian legend tells us, first made syrup from the "sweet water" of the maple. And quite by accident she discovered it—in boiling moosemeat for her chieftain.

But it is no legend that early settlers in New England learned the secret from the tribesmen—how, by boiling down the sap of the maple tree in early spring, there might be made a syrup of wondrous flavor—how, by further boiling, this sweetness might be concentrated in sugar that could be kept.

In many a Colonial household they knew no sweetening other than this maple syrup or maple sugar.

In the west, they longed for a taste of this spring-time delicacy

But the pioneers who later ventured from those regions where the sugar maples grew—to them the flavor of maple was but a memory. And how they hankered for it!

Their cornmeal mush, their pancakes, waffles and desserts all called for maple. Nothing else would give them the right taste.

Then, in the eighties, came Towle's Log Cabin Syrup. Instantly it sprang into favor. Ever since it has been the "Standard from Ocean to Ocean." For P. J. Towle found a way to produce a syrup of uniform maple flavor that was always clear and golden in color, and absolutely pure.

How Log Cabin gets its rich, unvarying flavor

He combined the choicest of New England maple with the best from Canadian groves—got the real sugars of maple in which the flavor is most intense. And he blended with this just enough pure sugar of cane—nothing else—to mellow and enhance that delicious maple taste.

That was Log Cabin years ago; that is Log Cabin today. It never varies.

For pancakes and waffles—and many other uses

Tomorrow morning have pancakes or waffles—with Log Cabin Syrup. And as you're pouring it on, notice how fragrant it is of the maple. Then taste it. The family won't blame you for smacking your lips!

That maple flavor will put new delight in hundreds of dishes from breakfast cereals to supper desserts the whole year around. Fritters, French toast, baked apples, candied sweet potatoes, puddings, cake frostings, ice cream and candies—all call for it.

Phone your grocer now for a can of Log Cabin. You can be sure you get it, for it comes only in the distinctive log-cabin-shaped can—3 sizes.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

On King Tax Law.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In an editorial "Paying the Score," in your issue of January 19 the statement is made that the increase in the rates of the Pacific Electric Company and the Southern California Telephone Company are due in large part to the King tax law. Referring to this act you observe: "Now the inevitable increases have come. The telephone rate and the street railway fares have advanced."

In the case of the Pacific Electric you are in complete error in your statement that the King tax law had any effect upon the rates established by the commission in its recent decision, for the very good reason that the King tax law made no change in the tax rate applicable to street and interurban railroads. On account of the financial condition of these lines generally they were exempted by the Legislature from increased taxes. The old rate of $1.4 per cent for street and interurban railroads is the rate fixed for them in the King law.

As to the telephone company, increased taxes under the King law are negligible as reflected in the rates. The old tax rate applicable to telephone companies was 4.3 per cent of the gross revenue, less certain specified deductions. The King bill increased the tax rate to 5.5 per cent, a difference of 1.2 per cent. The monthly telephone bill under the new rates for an individual line residence service is $8.75, and for unlimited business service $9.00. The difference of 1.3 per cent applied to the residence rate amounts to less than a cent a month, and to the business rate 12 cents a month.

About Parking Laws.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—[To the Editor of The Times:] When the Broadway merchants want to shorten the parking hours and allow them more time to get the fast nickel why don't they come clean and say that is the reason they are appealing for change in the city law. Their appeal is that it is their desire to assist the poor down-trodden housewife who, under the present regulations, has not time to do her afternoon shopping.

Let it be understood that the real honest-to-goodness housewife is always on her way homeward before 5 o'clock, that there may be an evening meal prepared for a bread-winner that is soon to come. It is the idle class those with servants at their command, that can remain downtown until within an hour of supper time. The ordinance as it now stands, that is, for automobiles to get off the street at 4 o'clock, was designed for the good purpose of relieving traffic before the hour when the workers start on their homeward journey. It was designed to clear the streets as much as possible so that the persons who have toiled all day in shop and office will have less difficulty in reaching their destinations and that they may get as much rest as is possible in this hurry-up life of ours.

In all probability the merchants will win their point, as they always do, but in heaven's name let it be won on the square and in the open. Let them tell the truth and not say they are working to benefit the real home-maker who can only be hindered by any law that makes it harder for her husband and her children who are employed downtown and who are pleased by any law that makes it easier for them to reach their own fireside after a hard day's work.

LURAH WILKINSON.

The Woman Juror.
FILLMORE, Jan. 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The letter of January 16, "The Wrong System," is in every way in accordance with my own viewpoint in regard to the jury system. Never should a jury be composed of women. Generally speaking, women are too temperamental to make a wise decision. It has been said that women as well as men that they do not possess extremely good judgment until after the ripe age of forty, and yet we have younger women in our jury today.

As a rule, they are too susceptible to romance. Besides those who have boys of their own may have a faint vision of a similar case when, perhaps, another young man is being tried for his life. It is at this point where she shows both physical and mental weakness, which is most natural. This temperamentality may often be the sole means of her making a foolish and unwise decision. In case of life and death, as for instance the Burch case, gives us much food for thought. Such cases as this demand justice and should have it.

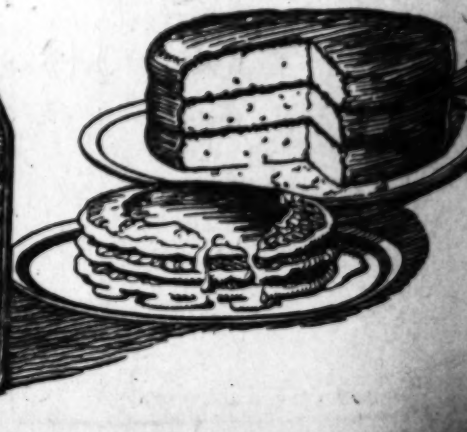

It is a very serious matter, requiring much thought and careful consideration.

Just Like Egypt.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Were you ever, while shopping or gazing into a window, or standing in line before a theater waiting to get in, or, perchance, chatting with a friend on the street, were you ever approached by a newsboy with a few papers tucked under one arm, and did not this same newsboy hold up for your gaze a dirty, greasy card that showed much wear and tear reading to the effect that a newsboy's dinner is to be given and contributions are asked?

Every one has, not only once, but many, many times, been approached and beseeched by the

SENT TO ROCKPILE.
Police Will Investigate Two Prisoners' Records.

While William Thorpe and Joe Ryla, the latter a Brazilian, are spending 180 days on the city rock pile, Deputy Sheriff Bell and Couts will investigate their records. The two young men are said to have admitted that they were acquainted with John T. Henry and Dave Hall, arrested in connection with the attempted hold-up of the manager of the Palms bank, and to have done not more than two days' work in a month. The youths were taken before Police Judge Chesbro, convicted of vagrancy and sentenced to 180 days in jail.

INJUNCTION AGAINST CINEMA STAR DENIED.
Judge York yesterday denied the injunction asked for by the Western Feature Production Company against William Fairbanks, cinema star, to enjoin him from working for another company. It was asserted he jumped his contract while an option was pending. Mr. Fairbanks, represented by Attorney Philip Cohen, declared that the contract had expired and that the option on his services was not exercised. Mr. Fairbanks stars in Western films.

COMMUTER MARKS CASE RECORD CITED. Examination of the records yesterday in the case of B. W. Marks, a local realty operator and promoter, who was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of conspiracy to obtain money by false pretenses, showed that Mr. Marks appeared before that body on four different days as a witness, and testified at length, according to deputies of the District Attorney's office. It was also pointed out that Mr. Marks' name was first on the indictment, and therefore undoubtedly was known to have been there by members of the last grand jury. The statement by certain members of the grand jury that had Mr. Marks been given a chance to tell his story, he would never have been indicted, was denied at the District Attorney's office. It was stated that Mr. Marks was called and did testify in the case before the inquisitorial body, which resulted in his indictment.

TEACHERS' AIMS PROVE SIMILAR. New Yorkers Seek Hand in Administration. Program Much Like Los Angeles Organization's. Journal of Education Sees Danger Line.

Striking similarity between the "program" of the Teachers' Union of New York City and the demands of a group of Los Angeles teachers for "teacher participation" in local school administration was revealed here yesterday through the receipt of a copy of the New England Journal of Education, giving a complete review of the New York Teachers' Union's radical proposals.

Claiming educational motives as their single inspiration, those behind the New York Teachers' Union agitation in this city propose to have the Board of Education review of which are to be in the hands of "advisers" elected by the teachers to sit in all conferences of the superintendent and to have representation on the Board of Education.

The union also proposes: "To obtain for teachers a substantial increase of salary with pay based on their own merits, and to encourage teachers to interest themselves in social, economic and political affairs, and to work for the abolition of all mechanical systems of rating the service of teachers, and to urge the development of standards of service approved and agreed upon by the teachers themselves."

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM. Other union proposals concern the working day, which the union teachers would have limited to six hours, including the lunch period, sanitation and health, higher salaries and the passage of legislation desired by the union.

A. E. Winship, editor of the Journal of Education and one of the most widely known writers on educational subjects, in commenting editorially on the program of the union, says: "There are some sections of Mr. Lavin's program which are most agreeable to me, while there are some that seem to us bordering very close to the danger line. Reports that under the organization working among Los Angeles teachers have been denied by officers of the various teachers' organizations of the city."

PARENTS SEEK SON. News of their son, who left his home near Covina on the 7th inst., was sought by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolsey. Mr. Wolsey has reported to The Times that he has not heard from his son since the 10th inst., when a letter was received signed by the boy, but not giving his address. The parents feel that their son's leaving home was a bit of boyish adventure only, but are anxious to know where he is and how he is getting on.

Acts of Mob Rule Deplored
by Episcopalians.

Diocese Convention Adopts Sharp Resolution.

Christians Asked to Help
Uphold Statutes.

"Resolved that this convention
deplores the growing indifference to law and order as evidenced by the disregard of part of the Constitution of the United States, and many acts of mob rule in various parts of the country; that it goes on record as in favor of prompt law enforcement; and, further, that it calls on all Christians to stand for the existing law of the land and for properly constituted order."

This resolution was enthusiastically adopted yesterday afternoon by the 100 delegates to the convention of the Los Angeles Diocese of the Episcopal Church in St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, the official representative more than 100 influential churches of Southern California.

This action was taken following the report of the commission on philanthropy and social service, which included the following phrases: "Perhaps never before has America faced such an outbreak of open violation of law. A new group of men, claiming the privilege of choosing just which portions of the Constitution they wish to obey. Often those who have loudest on the theme of loyalty to government and upholding the Constitution are the first ones to violate the Eighteenth Amendment. These men are aiding the cause of anarchy and promoting mob violence, robbery and homicide; they are sowing dragon teeth and they need not be surprised when they find that no judicial or police authority can save our country from reaping the harvest."

FINANCE REPORT.

Following the report of the finance committee, that committee recommended, for approval of the budget committee, diocesan budget for the coming year to total $14, $44, of which the bishop's salary shall be $2000, and the coadjutor bishop's salary $1000. The recommendation, it was announced, will in all probability be adopted and possibly augmented.

The report of the directors of the corporation of the Diocese of Los Angeles showed investment account receipts totaling $790,448 and total disbursements of the same amount. The total interest or revenue account receipts totaled $2847.12. Disbursements were $14, $75.90, which was offset by assets.
Rev. V. D. Ruggles, chaplain of the county and city mission society, reported on that organization's relief work during the last year at the County Hospital, the County Farm, Los Feliz Hospital, Eastside Jail, County Jail, Olive View Sanatorium and McKinley
Home for Boys.

Mr. Ruggles stated that the society is handicapped for lack of personal workers from the parish, there being at present only twenty-five visitors on the society's rolls.

"Among the present pressing needs are more visitors, more donations of clothing, literature and

The election of clerical and lay delegates to the national triennial general convention, which will meet at Portland, Ore., September
6, was held at St. Paul's Pro-
Cathedral yesterday afternoon.
The nominations placed on the ballots included nine pastors and ten prominent laymen, from which four clergymen and four laymen
were elected as follows:

For the clergy: The Very Reverend William MacCormack, D.D.,
Dean of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral;
Rev. Leslie E. Leonard, D.D., rector
of All-Saints Church of Pana-dena; Rev. G. L. Barnes, rector of St. Paul's Church of San Diego, and Rev. G. F. Weld, rector of All-Saints Church of Montecito.

Another workman was partly buried, but wriggled free before the work of rescue began. The other workmen narrowly escaped being buried alive. All of them were knocked down, but four managed to get to their feet and fight their way toward Figueroa street, which is at the west end of the tunnel, which, when completed, will run through to Hill street.

The good fortune that left Venezuela's head free saved him from swift death, for he would have been smothered before the pile could have been dug away.

The slide brought down a part of the newly cut tunnel roof. The work, however, will not be delayed greatly.

Mr. Ruggles. "We have done a vast amount of constructive work, considering the fact that we have made about 14,000 visits to those in need of financial, medical and spiritual assistance."

"I hope to see, during the pres-mission center and the employment of the back and internal huts that are investigating the Soldiers' Home at Santee and the Golden State Hospital, where there are many solidiers, as possible fields for work. It is also hoped soon to have an additional chaplain for the work in order to meet the growing needs and opportunities."

DELEGATES ELECTED.

The election of clerical and lay
delegates to the national triennial
general convention, which will meet at Portland, Ore., September
6, was held at St. Paul's Pro-
Cathedral yesterday afternoon.

The nominations placed on the ballots included nine pastors and
ten prominent laymen, from which four clergymen and four laymen
were elected as follows:

For the clergy: The Very Re-
verend William MacCormack, D.D.,
Dean of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral;
Rev. Leslie E. Leonard, D.D., rector
of All-Saints Church of Pana-

St. Paul's Church of San Diego,
and Rev. G. F. Weld, rector of All-

For the laity: W. C. Muesel, Grouped in a corner suite on the tenth floor of the hotel, Mr. Wiggins, half a dozen newspaper reporters, and a battery of camera men, awaited her coming at 10 a.m. The world over, day after day, similar scenes are enacted, and yet Mrs. Pavlova flashed into the room as if this was her first tribute from an admiring public.

In his right hand Mr. Wiggins held a cluster of poppies, and under his left arm was tucked the gold-ribboned box of souvenirs.
"I love them," she said, grasping the extended hand of Mr. Wiggins in both of her hands, and drawing the cluster of poppies up to her breast.

is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion.
Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely

JAMAICA FREE OF RACE RIOTS.

Island Black Man's Land and Chance for Life.

Brown Complexioned and Negroes Live Peacefully.

Few Whites There, but None Doing Well.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

KINGSTON (Jamaica), Jan. 26.

In the West Indies and not in a chimerical republic in Africa lies the opportunity of the negro race to take the next great step forward in its history. Jamaica, at least, is becoming a black man's land and the future lies rather in the use the negroes put to their power than in a fresh influx of northern blood and capital, either from England or America.

LIVE PEACEFULLY.

Here if anywhere, the negroes white and brown live peacefully together. There are no racial antipathies. There are no riots and no lynchings. There are no crimes against white or colored men. The question simply does not exist. It is not discussed as a problem. Here the negro and the mixed strains may work their way upward from primitive jungle inhibitions and under conditions impossible in the United States.

"I feel much at home here," said a black girl who had just come from New Jersey.

Marcus Garvey, a colored agitator, who attained over the people of his race in New York and Chicago, comes from Jamaica, but he is a prophet without great honor here. His people say that he should have remained at home and worked. He was here a few months ago with his famous black star navy, but he had trouble with his crew and his doctrines fell on deaf ears. He preached that the colored people were an allegiance neither to the American nor the British flag, but only to the flag of the black republic. He was so the American Consul at Kingston refused to give him a passport to permit him to go home, but police pressure brought him to bear at Washington and he finally left.

HIGHLY INTELLIGENT.

In this island of 1,000,000 inhabitants, there are over 900,000 colored persons only a few generations removed from slavery. Between them and a few thousand whites there is every gradation of color as a result of mixture with Europeans. Those that appear white are as considered and accepted socially. They are highly intelligent and energetic and but for the fact that they consider themselves superior to the black which sometimes irritates the latter, they would be natural leaders. The whites are not coming here in great numbers and they do not do well. American protection is sought by those who wanted property values raised, but the people do not trust American justice and would rather move slowly under English neglect until a time when they will be capable of running a free state. American industry is the chief one here and American medical work under the Rockefeller foundation is giving the first real ideas of sanitation and public health. American doctors are stamping out the hookworm so that every peasant in the hill knows them in their folds. In some districts 90 per cent of the people are infected.
